

LUNCH AT CASTLE ISLAND

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 13

Located at the end of Carson Beach, on Pleasure Bay in South Boston, Castle Island is a 22-acre recreation site, and the site of Fort Independence. Castle Island was really an island until several land reclamations through the years extended causeways and eventually roadways. Today it is operated as a state park by the Massachusetts Department of Conservation and Recreation.

If you wish to attend, a school bus will take you from the Council on Aging to Castle Island to enjoy lunch. The bus will leave the Council on Aging at approximately 10:30 a.m. and will return at approximately 2:30 p.m.
